About our Credit Cards

Subject to the Agreement, our Credit Card service allows you to pay for goods and services purchased from Outlets, or to withdraw cash including cash from cash machines or by any other means where the appropriate Credit Card logo is displayed.

1. Looking after your card and pin

- 1.1 You must only use your Card in accordance with the terms of this agreement.
- 1.2 Your PIN will be sent in a sealed document, which you should open immediately and destroy as soon as you have memorised the number. PINs may also be changed at most Automated Teller Machines (ATMs) belonging to the major banks in the UK. You must never tell anyone your PIN, and never write it down or record your PIN or other security information.
- 1.3 You should sign your Card as soon as you receive it. You should take reasonable steps to keep your Card safe and your PIN and other security information secret at all times. You should tell us immediately if you change your name or address. The Card remains our property at all times.
- 1.4 You must not let anybody else use your Card, your PIN or other security information.
- 1.5 You must not tell anyone your Card number, except when carrying out a Transaction or to report it lost, stolen or likely to be misused. If you wish you may register your Card and its number, but not your PIN, with a recognised card protection service organisation.

2. Loss or misuse of a Card

- 2.1 If you think someone else knows your PIN, or if your Card is lost, stolen or liable to be misused, you must tell us immediately by calling us on 00 44 (0) 28 9033 0099 (24 hours a day), or contact any of our branches.
- 2.2 Notification of loss or theft of a Card will be accepted from card protection service organisations.

2.3 We will refund you the amount of any Transaction, interest and charges:

- (i) where you have not received your Card and it is misused by someone else;
- (ii) for all Transactions not authorised by you after you have told us that your Card has been lost or stolen or that someone else knows your PIN;
- (iii) if someone else uses your Card details without your permission and your Card has not been lost or stolen.

2.4 If someone else uses your Card before you tell us it has been lost or stolen or liable to misuse, the most you will have to pay is £50 if we can show that you or your authorised user have been grossly negligent in causing that loss. You may have to pay £50 more than once if the Card is taken and returned to your possession more than once before we are notified that the Card is lost, stolen or liable to misuse.

2.5 You are liable for losses caused by someone who acquires possession of your Card (or that of an Authorised User) with consent up to the time you tell us that your Card is liable to misuse. You are liable for all losses if you or an Authorised User act fraudulently.

2.6 In the event of loss or misuse of any Card we would expect you to cooperate with us and the police in any investigation.

2.7 Once a Card has been reported lost, stolen or liable to misuse, it cannot be used again. If found, it must be destroyed by cutting through the Chip.

3. Use of a Card

- 3.1 Any Credit Limit on your Card will be set by us. We may vary this limit at any time. We will not increase your limit if you have been identified as a customer at risk of financial hardship. You may tell us, at any time, that you want to reduce your limit. If you request us to increase your limit, this shall be at our discretion. You may exercise any of these rights by contacting us on (028) 9023 6644 or using our online facility.
- 3.2 You may use your Card only within the Validity Period shown on it, and only when its use would not result in you exceeding the Credit Limit on your Account. You may not use it if it has been cancelled or suspended by us.
- 3.3 In assessing whether the Credit Limit has been exceeded, in addition to the balance of the Account we may also take account of Transactions that we have authorised but which have not yet been charged, including estimated amounts.
- 3.4 When necessary we may give you a replacement Card/PIN, but we will not issue any more Cards on your Account if you tell us in writing not to do so.

4. Transactions and charges

- 4.1 There are a variety of means by which you can authorise such Transactions, these included:
 - a) authorisation by means of your Card used in conjunction with your PIN for point of sale Transactions or Transactions using a cash machine;

- b) authorisation by means of your Card number and in some circumstances a Security Code for Transactions by mail, telephone, Internet or by use of a secure system; and
 - c) authorisation by means of your Card and signature where the other authorisation options in this condition are not available.
- 4.2 Charges will be levied in accordance with the details contained in the Tariff as published from time to time and will be advised to you at the outset of this Agreement. If the charges are to be varied at any time we will advise you with your statement, giving you at least two months notice before the new charges take effect. On receipt of such notification you may terminate this Agreement in accordance with conditions 11.3 and 11.5. of these Terms and Conditions of Use.
- 4.3 The amount of each Transaction will be debited to your Account even if you are in breach of this Agreement or it has ended.
- 4.4 You cannot stop or reverse a Transaction after it has been completed (whether or not a voucher is signed or a PIN entered), as we guarantee payment.
- 4.5 If you have Recurring Transactions (also known as 'Continuous Payment Authorities') set up on your Card (such as Internet or magazine subscription) and you wish to cancel them, you can do so by contacting us up to the last business day before the payment is due to leave your Account. You should also contact the company or service provider to advise them that you are cancelling the Recurring Transaction.
- 4.6 If we have good reason to believe that:
- a) the security of your Card is compromised; or
 - b) your Card could be used to commit fraud, or by someone who does not have authority to use it; or
 - c) in the case of a payment service that offers you credit there is a significantly increased risk that you may not be able to pay back the money you have borrowed.
- then we may prevent or stop any transaction on your account. Where applicable, we will try to contact you before we take a decision to decline a transaction, but it may not always be possible for us to do so. Please refer to 'Contacting You' for the ways in which we can communicate with you. If we contact you by text message you may be asked to confirm a transaction by responding to the text message.
- 4.7 You are liable (except as mentioned in Condition 2 of these Terms & Conditions of Use) for payment of:
- a) all Transactions, and
 - b) all interest and charges as mentioned in the Tariff, and
 - c) all losses and reasonable costs that we incur because of any breach of this Agreement.
- 4.8 Where the Card is used to avail of a Cash Advance facility a Transaction charge, as mentioned in the Tariff, is applied to each Cash Advance and is debited to your Account on the same date as the Cash Advance.
- 4.9 The amount of any non-sterling Transaction will be converted to sterling at the rate of exchange applicable on the date the Transaction is debited to the Account in accordance with the procedures of Visa and accordingly the date of conversion may not be the date of the Transaction. We have no control over when the Transaction will actually be processed by Visa. For Transactions within the EEA, we can provide you with an indicative rate of exchange on the day of the Transaction if you contact us, but as outlined above, this may not be the actual rate that will be applied as exchange rates may fluctuate between the date of a Transaction and the date on which the Transaction amount is debited to the Account. In addition to the fees and charges referred to in the Tariff you may also be charged a Transaction fee by the local bank which processes the Transaction. Our contact details are set out in the 'Contacting us' section in these Conditions.
- 4.10 Payment for goods and services ordered by mail, telephone, Internet or other electronic means may require, in some instances, a Cardholder Security Code which is printed on or beside the signature panel on the back of your Card.
- 5. Refunds and non-acceptance
- 5.1 If a Card Transaction is unsatisfactory and the Outlet agrees to give you a refund, the Outlet must issue a refund voucher, that will then be processed by us and the amount credited to your Account. No other method is acceptable. Unless the law provides otherwise, no claim by you against an Outlet may be the subject of a defence or claim against us.
- 5.2 We cannot be held liable to you (whether or not you make or try to make the Transaction) for:
- a) any failure or delay by any other person to accept your Card or Card number or
 - b) the way in which any other person communicates such failure or delay or communicates any refusal to authorise a Transaction; or
 - c) the publication of a refusal of Authorisation of any Transaction.
- 5.3 Refunds are not treated as payments made to your Account and therefore will not be reflected in the current amount due for settlement. The amount due, which is advised to you, should be settled in the normal way and any refund will be provided within 10 Banking Days.
- 5.4 You should carefully examine all Statements and any other Account information received by you or accessed by you online and immediately report any disputed Transactions, errors or omissions to us. We recommend that you review your Account details online on a regular basis. In the event you have a query concerning a Transaction on your Account please contact us immediately. Our contact details are set out in the 'Contacting Us' section of these Conditions.

- 5.5 Where your bank and the Payee's bank are both located in the EEA and the payment was in euro or the currency of a member state of the EEA outside the euro area:
- a) you must notify us without undue delay on becoming aware of any unauthorised or incorrectly executed Transaction on your Account. Where you are not liable under Condition 2.4 and 2.5 and you notify us without undue delay we will refund to you the amount of any payment debited to your Account which was not authorised by you and, where necessary, restore your Account to the state it would have been in had the Transaction not taken place. You will be liable for all unauthorised Transactions as a result of the breach of Condition 2.4 and 2.5. You will only be entitled to redress for an unauthorised or incorrectly executed payment if you tell us of the Transaction without undue delay and, in any event no later than 13 months after the debit date.
 - b) If you have authorised us to make a payment from your Account and it has not been paid correctly by us you may be entitled to a refund if:
 - (i) the authorisation you gave did not specify the exact amount of the payment; and
 - (ii) the payment made from your Account was more than reasonably expected, taking into Account your previous spending pattern, the Terms & Conditions of your Account or Card and the circumstances surrounding the payment. To apply for a refund in these circumstances, you must tell us without undue delay if both of the above happen and, in any case, no later than eight weeks after the amount is taken from your Account.
- 5.6 If condition 5.5(b) applies, we will either refund you the full amount of the payment or provide justification or refusal of your request for a refund within 10 Banking Days of receiving a request for the refund. You can complain to the Financial Ombudsman Service if you are not satisfied with this decision.
- 5.7 If you make a claim for such a refund in the circumstances set out in condition 5.5(b), you must provide to us all relevant information requested by us and for the purpose of computing the 10 Banking Day period referred to within this condition.
- 5.8 your request will only be deemed to have been made when you provide all such information. If we dispute your right to a refund we will advise you of our reasons. If you are not satisfied with our reasons you may make a complaint. For details of how to contact us in this regard, please refer to the "About Us" section.
- 5.9 You are not entitled to a refund where:
- a) you have given consent directly to the Payment Service Provider for the Transaction; and b) information on the Transaction was provided or made available in an agreed manner to you by the Payment Service Provider for at least four weeks before the due date.
- 5.10 Regardless of the issue of liability, where you notify us of an incorrectly executed payment or non-execution of a payment we will make immediate efforts to trace the defective payment.
- 5.11 Where the Payee's bank is located outside the EEA and you wish to query or dispute a Transaction, it must be brought to our attention as soon as reasonably practical and within 60 days of its appearing on your Account statement, which may be up to 30 days from the date it was undertaken.
- 5.12 The Direct Debit Guarantee Scheme will protect payments you make by Direct Debit.
- 6. Statements and payments
- 6.1 Normally you will receive a monthly statement for your Card, unless your Account has a nil balance and has not been used. If there is no balance outstanding on your Account you will receive a statement at least annually.
- 6.2 If an unauthorised or incorrectly executed payment has been made from your Account, within the EEA, you must notify us without undue delay. If we fail to execute a payment and you are eligible for a refund under condition 5, we will, without undue delay, put your Account back into the position it would have been in had the payment been correctly executed and reimburse you for any charges you have incurred and interest you have been charged by us for the incorrect execution.
- 6.3 You will only be entitled to redress for an unauthorised or incorrectly executed payment if you tell us of the Transaction without undue delay and, in any event no later than 13 months after the debit date.
- 6.4 The balance outstanding on your Account at statement date will be collected in full by us, by Direct Debit, by the date shown on your monthly statement. Any additional payment that you make to us will only take effect when received at the address notified by us and credited to your Account.
- 6.5 You shall ensure that funds are available to meet any Direct Debit payment authorised in respect of your obligations under this Agreement. You will authorise your bank to pay upon presentation all Direct Debits initiated by us in respect of any sums due to us under this Agreement.
- 7. Interest
- If the Direct Debit initiated by us under Condition 6 of these Terms & Conditions of Use is returned unpaid, interest will be charged on a daily basis, at a rate equivalent to 1.75% per month, on the balance outstanding, until the next statement date when interest for the preceding month will be debited to the Account. If we increase the interest charged on your balance we will communicate notice of the increase to you at least two months before the increase becomes effective. Interest will not be charged if you pay the full balance shown on your current statement by the payment due date shown on the statement and additionally you have paid the full balance shown on your previous statement by the payment due date shown on that statement. If you pay the full balance on your current statement but have not paid the full balance on your previous statement you will be charged interest. Interest will be calculated on the amount unpaid on your previous statement.

8. Authorised user

8.1 Where you have given us authority to issue an additional Card and PIN for use on your Account by another person, you will be held personally responsible for their use. We will cancel any such Visa Card at any time if you or the Authorised User request this in writing, in which case the Card should be destroyed by you or the Authorised user by cutting through the Chip.

8.2 By entering into this Agreement you give us the authority to pass on information about your Account or Transactions to any Authorised User. However, no amendments to your Account details or the Credit Limit will be accepted from them.

9. Insurance

9.1 Where you have elected to take insurance, information about you may be passed to any Insurance broker, if appropriate, and to the insurer(s). This information may be used and disclosed for such purposes as underwriting, processing, administration, claims handling, fraud prevention and compliance and regulatory reporting. Failure to make the minimum payment by the payment due date may automatically cancel the insurance policies detailed in condition 9.2 of these Terms & Conditions of Use.

CPP Card protection

9.2 If you choose to take advantage of our Card Protection Plan the premium will be charged to your Account, and annually thereafter. If you have chosen the three year option, the premium will be charged every three years. We may from time to time change the premium rate giving you at least 30 days notice.

10. Withdrawal of the Card

10.1 In the circumstances detailed in condition 11.1 below, we may at any time and without notice:

Provided we have an objectively justified reason for doing so, we may at any time and if necessary without notice:

- b) decide not to renew or replace the Card.

If we take such action we will immediately advise you of this in writing.

10.2 Any such action by us as detailed in Condition 11.1 of these Terms & Conditions of Use will not affect your outstanding obligations under this Agreement which will continue in force.

10.3 If a request for immediate payment in full has been advised to you in writing by us, we shall have the right to set-off and apply against such liability all or sufficient of the monies (if any) standing to the credit of any other Account you may have with us.

10.4 We may publish the suspension or cancellation of the Card and if we ask you to return it you must do so at once, destroyed by cutting through the Chip for security reasons. The Card may be retained by any person acting on our behalf.

If we take such action we will immediately give you notice of this in writing.

11.2 We may end this Agreement by giving you at least two months notice in writing.

11.3 If you wish to end this Agreement you may do so in writing. For security reasons you must destroy all current Cards held by you or an Authorised User by cutting through the Chip and all recurring payment Transactions must be cancelled as set out in accordance with Condition 4.5.

11.4 Whether this Agreement is ended by you or us the outstanding balance on your Account, the amount of any outstanding Transactions, fees, charges or interest will become immediately due and payable in full. The terms of this Agreement will remain in force until all money owed is paid.

11.5 If you choose to end this Agreement as a result of you rejecting an interest rate increase or a variation of our charges you must repay, over a reasonable period of time (i.e. not later than two months from requested closure date or such longer period of time as may be agreed between both parties), the outstanding balance of your Account including the amount of any outstanding fees, charges or interest. In this event the interest rate on your Account will remain unchanged and you must adhere to the condition 11.3 above.

12. General

- 12.1 If we are prevented (directly or indirectly) despite all efforts to the contrary from carrying out any of our obligations under this Agreement because of:
- a fault which has happened in any transmission link; or
 - an industrial dispute; or
 - anything outside our control or that of our agents or subcontractors, we will not be liable for this.
- 12.2 We will be liable for the amount of any Transaction together with any interest and charges where faults have occurred in ATMs, or other systems used, which were not obvious or subject to a warning message or notice at time of use.
- 12.3 If we offer you additional facilities or benefits to which you have access by use of your Card, but which do not form part of this Agreement, then we may vary or withdraw these at any time without notice.
- 12.4 If we choose not to, or if we cannot enforce any term which forms part of this Agreement, this will not affect our right to subsequently enforce that term or to enforce any of the remaining terms.
- 12.5 We can transfer all or any of our rights and/or obligations under this Agreement at any time. Any such transfer will not reduce your rights under this Agreement unless you agree otherwise.
- 12.6 The EEA state for the purpose of this Agreement is the United Kingdom and this Agreement is governed by the Laws of England and Wales. In the event of a dispute the courts of England shall have exclusive jurisdiction.
- 12.7 All correspondence entered into under this Agreement will be in the English language.
- 12.8 We reserve the right at all times to amend, vary or supplement these Terms & Conditions as a result of a change in the law, regulation or good practice, customer feedback or product development or for such other valid reasons as are advised to you at the time of notification of the change. If we want to make a change to your Terms & Conditions, and this change is to your disadvantage, we will communicate these changes to you at least two months before they become effective (unless, by law or regulations, we are able to give your shorter notice). Unless we hear otherwise from you during the notice period, we will assume that you are happy to accept the amended Terms & Conditions. If you are not happy, you have the right to end your agreement with us. At any time up to two months from the date of the notice you may, without notice, switch your Account or close it without having to pay any extra charges or interest for doing this. On receipt of such notification you may terminate the relationship in accordance with condition 11.3 and subject to your immediately repaying all amounts outstanding as provided for in condition 11.4. However, if you continue to hold your Account after this time, you will be considered to have accepted the relevant changes. Any such notice to you shall be by putting a message in your statement or by sending you a written notice.

- 12.9 Credit balances are not a feature of the Credit Card product and accordingly the Bank reserves the right to reject or return Transactions which create credit balances.
- 12.10 We will not normally return payments made into your account. However, in certain limited circumstances, we may have a duty to do so. Should we need to return a payment made on your account and you have a question about the returned payment, we will provide you with a reason.

13. Your right to withdraw

- 13.1 You have the right to withdraw from your agreement beginning on the later of (i) the day after your agreement is made (which is when both you and we have signed and dated the agreement) or (ii) the day after you receive a copy of your executed agreement, or (iii) the day we notify you of your actual credit limit, and ends 14 days later. You can do this by contacting us by telephone on (028) 9023 6644 or by sending a written note of cancellation to Allied Irish Bank (GB) Card Services, PO Box 333, Belfast BT1 3FT.

If you cancel this Agreement any money you have paid, goods given in part exchange (or their value) or property given as security will be returned to you. You will still have to repay any money lent to you. But if you repay all of it before your first instalment – or, if you are not paying by instalments, within one month after cancellation – you will not have to pay interest or other charges.

If you already have any goods under the Agreement, you should not use them and should keep them safe. (Legal action may be taken against you if you do not take proper care of them.) You can wait for them to be collected from you and you need not hand them over unless you receive a written request. You will not, however, be required to hand back any goods supplied to meet an emergency or which have already been incorporated, for example, in your home. But you will still be liable to pay for emergency goods or services or for any goods which have been incorporated by you or your relatives.

- 13.2 If you choose not to cancel you will remain fully bound by the Terms & Conditions of Use of this product.
