INFORMATION ON THE QUALITY OF EXECUTION OBTAINED

This section includes a summary of the analysis and conclusions drawn from detailed monitoring of the quality of execution obtained on execution venues where we execute client orders for Currency Derivatives for the time period covered by this report.

All AIB Treasury client orders executed on a trading venue are directed orders, where a specific execution venue was specified by the client prior to the execution of the order. Therefore execution factors such as price, costs, speed, likelihood of execution or any other consideration including qualitative factors are not assessed by AIB Treasury in terms of relative importance in executing client orders.

AIB Treasury has no close links, conflicts of interests or common ownerships with respect to any execution venues used to execute client orders.

AIB Treasury has no specific arrangements with any execution venues regarding payments made or received, discounts, rebates or non-monetary benefits received.

AIB Treasury does not receive any remuneration, discount or non-monetary benefit for routing client orders to a particular trading venue or execution venue which would infringe the requirements on conflicts of interest or inducements set out in the MiFID II.

AIB Treasury has not made any changes to the list of execution venues listed in its order execution policy for retail and professional clients, for the time period covered by this report.

AIB Treasury has not received client orders relating to Currency Derivatives executed on an execution venue from any retail clients for the time period covered by this report.
